Peaks Mill.

[DELAYED LETTER.]

Weather pleasant up to date.

Mrs. Rebecca Harrod, of Swallowfield, was in the Mill the first of the week, the guest of relatives.

Miss Stella Manford, of Swallowfield, was in our midst last week, the guest of friends.

Misses Alice and Anna Will Stafford were callers on Miss Virgie Bacon last Sunday night and Monday.

Mrs. James Jenkins, who has been quite sick for the past week, is much improved at this writing.

Mr. Bake Bacon and sister, Miss Virgie, entertained their friends on Thursday night of last week with a social and hop. Music was furnished by the Hodges & Winters orchestra, and dancing was indulged in until the wee sma' hours. Every one seemed to enjoy themselves and left happy, hoping to soon have an invitation to another one.

Mr. Razerbill Height, of Swallowfield, was with us last Tuesday on business.

Miss Virgie Bacon left last Tuesday for Harvieland, where she will spend a week or so with relatives and friends.

Mr. Barnie Harrod and wife spent a few days the first of the week at Swallowfield, the guests of relatives and friends.

CASTORIA.

The famous signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is on every wrapper.

Red Hot From the Gun

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the civil war. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures cuts, bruises, burns, boils, felons, corns, skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures dyspepsia because its ingredients are such that it can't help doing so. "The public can rely upon it as a master remedy for all disorders arising from imperfect digestion."—James M. Thomas, M. D., in American Journal of Health, N. Y. J. E. Tyler.

Dr. R. P. Buckmaster, Osteopath,

Has opened an office in the residence of Mr. Chas. T. Ellwanger, No. 512 Main street, where he invites those suffering from diseases to call. There will be no charge for examination. He asks an opportunity to demonstrate his ability. Call and see him.
